BY THE

Lord-Deputy and COUNCIL,

A PROCLAMATION,

CAPELL,

WHEREAS it hath been of late uſed that the Judges of Aſſize and Goal-Delivery, for the Province of Munſter, have not gone into the County of Kerry more than once every Year, by reaſon of the Remoteneſs of the ſaid County from the City of Dublin, and the bad ways in and out of the ſaid County, his Majeſties Subjects Dwelling in that County have not ſo fully Juſtice Adminiſtred to them as other his Majeſties Subjects have the benefit of Aſſize twice every Year in all other parts of the Kingdom, by means whereof the Goal of that County hath often been ſo filled with Priſons, that the ſame hath been broken by them, which might have been prevented by a more frequent Goal Delivery. To ſupply which, ſpecial Commiſſioners of Oyer and Terminer have been thought Neceſſary to Iſſue into that County, to the great Expence of the Crown. Therefore for the Future to prevent the ſaid, and other Inconveniencies, and to diſcourage Malefactors from their Evil Practices, who depending on the impunity of their Crimes for ſo long a time as an intire Year are the Eaſier Induced to Commit Felonies, and other Miſdemeanors: And to Clear the ſaid County from the Reſort of Tories and Malefactors, who for the Reaſons aforeſaid, Chiefly Reſide there, and thence Infeſt other parts of the Kingdom. We have thought fit to Declare and to Require and Command, that all Judges of Aſſize and Goal-Delivery, in and for the Province of Munſter, ſhall for the Future hold their Aſſizes and Goal-Delivery twice in the Year in the ſaid County of Kerry, as well as in any other County of the Province of Munſter; and ſhall Iſſue their Precepts accordingly. Given at the Council-Chamber in Dublin the Ninth Day of December, 1695.

Potter, Can: Mount-Alexander, Longford, Bleſinton, St. Geo. Cloyn, Rob: Fitz-Gerald, John Hanmer, Wm. Wolſeley, Ro. Colvil. H. Ingoldesby, Chriſ. Wandesford, Ri. Pyne. Rob. King. Ri. Aldworth. Tho. Brodrick.

GOD Save the KING.

DUBLIN, Printed by Andrew Crook, Printer to the Kings Moſt Excellent Majeſty, 1695.

9 December 1695